Tibbs, Bourland Names United in Nuptial Rites

Connie Tibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Ware, 18750 S. Vermont Ave., Gardena and Jack Bourland, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bourland, 1417 W. 254 St., Harbor City were joined in marriage Feb. 14 at the Avalon Baptist Church at 8 p.m.

Large baskets of white glads and carnations decorated the church as Rev. Harry J. Lansman performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, Robert Ware, in a gown of champagne lace designed and made by her grandmother, Mrs. Reece Henry.

The dress featured a billowy skirt with a train of ruffles in the back, long sleeves, a neckline outlined in pearls and back interest of covered buttons reaching to the waist.

White gardenias and lily of the valley intermingled in the bridal bouquet. A veil of medium length cascaded from a seed pearl princess crown.

Maid of honor, Nita Bourland chose a red Peau de Sole satin dress and carried a bouquet of red and white candy striped carnations.

Bridesmaids Barbara Taylor and Gail Wajte wore dresses identical with that of the maid of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Wendy Trotter as flower girl wore a white dress decorated with rose buds and carried red rose buds in her basket.

Gary Eldred, best man, Marvin Foster and Chuck Dean completed the wedding party.

The bride's mother chose a flowing white satin dress with blue spring flowers scattered over the fabric. The gown was designed in the new bouffant style. She carried a beaded purse with blue accents and wore long gloves reaching the elbow.

The bridegroom's mother dressed in a gown of rose silk with a combination floral print of black and green. Her accessories were of rose.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. From there the couple left for a honeymoon in Big Bear.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Narbonne High School. He attended Harbor Junior College for two years and is now employed by Hughes Aircraft in El Segundo.

The bride is a graduate of Phineas Banning High School and is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph in Los Angeles.

For her wedding the bride wore an empire gown of ivory peau de sol, inset with cores of French Chantilly lace. The gown's sabrina neckline followed the pattern of the lace bodice.

From the neckline in back the satin and lace train swept the floor in graceful folds.

A coronet of pearls held a fingertip veil of white net. Her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Madeline Whitson, served the bride as maid of honor, she wore a contrasting red faille sheath with a full net bubble overskirt.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Mary Williams, Miss Karen Covention and Miss Gayle Orr were dressed in white sheaths and carried heart shaped bouquets of red carnations.

Leading the procession, flower girl, Mary Ann Allen was dressed in a floor length white taffeta gown with a bubble train and narrow streamers of red velvet ribbon tipped with miniature hearts.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a deep pink embroidered gown.

George Schlegel was chosen as best man with ushers Tickey Orr, Jim Keltner and Malcolm Godden serving with him.

Dois Porter Is Honored at Birthday Dinner

Tiny Valentine hearts surrounding a pink azalea centerpiece decorated the table at the Birthday dinner party held by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinkel in honor of their daughter-in-law, Doris Marie Porter Feb. 7.

Old fashioned games including a grab bag full of prizes and charades were played. Fred Ellis provided the traditional birthday song on the organ.

Present for the celebration were William Porter, husband of the guest of honor, and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gofstano and brother Bud, Mr. and Mrs. James Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hinkel and Fred Ellis.
